Apologies for absence: none

Points of Action From Previous Meeting:

1. School Council Charter

Done! This is now on display in the hall alongside a note which always tells us when the next meeting is.

2. Suggestion Boxes

Skorts – Still an action for Mrs Dow! Sorry!

Rules on the Tyres – Jessica spoke to the class and found out that they meant that there should be a grown-up to police the tyres and make sure it is the right day for the children. School Council to remind classes to stick to the timetable.

Today's Meeting

1. Mrs Dow had no other business so we spent the time on suggestion boxes.

Suggestion Boxes

- Spanish instead of French? This would be a whole school changeover of language but is a good idea. Mrs Dow thinks everybody should learn Spanish as it is the language with the MOST countries in the world HOWEVER, this might be a big job to change over! Mrs Dow will let Miss Todd (in charge of French) know SC's thoughts and it is definitely something to consider!
- Class Pet? This is a bit too much responsibility for the classes to take on. We do however have a farm, and Charlie the Cat! I'm not sure this is going to be a winner?!
- Two slides? We do have the waterslide but we think this might be about other slides? SC think slides off the bank would be fun. Mrs Dow to check on Mr Dutton's opinion. FOPS?!
- Have a Yes Day! Mrs Dow says NO!
- Bring a teddy to school? School Council have voted and think we should have PJ Day at Christmas because (even though it was for COVID) it was so fun last year. Children can bring sensible sized teddies for the day and we might even watch a movie!
- Vending Machines? What is in them? Coffees for grown-ups? Stuff for kids? Will money get lost? Do we need them when we have fruit and snacks? Hmmmm... thinking faces all round.
- Animal Friendly Tree Top Farm? We're confused! George to ask for more information from his class!

Actions for Next Meeting:

- School Council to remind classes with to stick to the timetable for the tyres.
- Mrs Dow to investigate skorts further.
- Mrs Dow to speak to Mr Dutton about slides, PJ Day (totally happening).
- Mrs Dow to speak to Miss Todd about French.
- George to investigate Tree Top Farm situation.

Next Meeting: 18th November 2021

See you next time!
